Meeting Library Please return what you borrow

Over the past year multiple new books have been added to our Monthly Meeting Library. From the rapid circulation of these books, it appears they have met the interest of our Meeting members and attenders. Please remember to sign them out on the clip board and bring them back for others to read. Check your book shelves, coffee tables, bathroom reading basket, bottom of book bags, in the back of the coat closet where you left your flashlight when reading late at night, for any books that can come back to our library.

Keep an eye out for the next additions to the library.
